Dear Aunt Anne

2 week ago Saturday, Maggie took to her bed after trying in vain to stave off a bad cold - Bronchitis developed - filling the tubes all up and then pneumonia, which the doctor (wrote) broke up, or dissolved, but which re-appeared a day latter. She has weathered the storm however and since yesterday morning has been making substantial improvement. She has a day and a night nurse both of whom are most satisfactory. She is much brighter today - with the old sense of the humorous springing up and the Doctor is very well satisfied that she is well on the way of recovery - She wanted me to send her love to you and let you how she was faring.

The little Margaret started off for her winter in Shoshone Idaho, last Tuesday. Both Maggie and I thought it was better for her to go - and at that time there had been no indications of pneumonia.

My sister Mrs. Grant was here and will remain and see to the housekeeping until Maggie is well on her feet again.

Dorothy Peters' wedding was very pretty and appropriate - The bridegroom is a well built and of a frank and attractive countenance and Dorothy was radiant and beautiful.

Trusting that things are going well with you,

Most affectionately
George -
